“ Without Cathi we would have been floundering...

We have only the utmost praise and admiration for our tour escort extraordinaire, Cathi Burnett-Cosgrove, who goes above and beyond when the best laid plans go awry.

This was aptly demonstrated when our group missed a connection at Auckland airport due to the delay in arriving from Hobart. Amid the chaos, confusion and crowds at Auckland, Cathi was able to steer us through immigration/customs in a relatively short time, arrange our overnight accommodation (with dinner!) at a nearby hotel and get us back to the airport the next day for our onward flight.

Cathi's patience and expertise were further tested when our flight from Queenstown to Christchurch was cancelled as we arrived at the airport. She sprang into action, knew exactly who to speak to and what had to be done and within 90 minutes we were on a private coach heading north to Christchurch.

On both occasions, Cathi's knowledge and years of experience as a tour escort, her ability to remain calm under stress and negotiate with airline personnel came to our rescue.

Without her we would have been floundering, and certainly would not have achieved the same outcomes. She is a valuable and essential asset to have, not just in these uncertain times but at all times when travelling when the unexpected can and does happen.

Thank you, Cathi.

~ Barb & Steve Long

OUR TOUR ITINERARY

Day 1

SATURDAY 2ND SEPTEMBER 2023: TASMANIA-CASABLANCA

Today we depart Australia for our discovery of Mystical Morocco.

A

Day 2

SUN 3RD SEPTEMBER: CASABLANCA

We will be met on arrival at Casablanca. This morning we start our city tour to see the port and old city area, where we visit the impressive Hassan II mosque. Admire one of the most interesting architectural achievements in modern Morocco. We then explore some of the main streets down town that date back to the French protectorate. The buildings here are made in the art-deco style, built and designed back in 1920's. Visit the old French food and flower market before we stop on Mohammed V Square, one of the main squares of Casablanca, to admire the neo-Moorish style architecture of several official buildings such as the town hall and the court of justice built in 1930's. Visit the largest church in Casablanca, "Notre Dame De Lourdes", and see one of the most impressive works in stained glass. Continue to the new Medina to see the elaborate court house with its traditional Moroccan architecture.

Day 3

MON 4TH SEPTEMBER: CASABLANCA-ESSAOUIRA

Today we leisurely make our way down the coast to the fishing port of Essaouira with a guided tour of Azemmour along the way.

BD

Day 4

TUE 5TH SEPTEMBER: ESSAOUIRA

Essaouira is a charming fortified town with remains of a 16th century Portuguese fort and a complete Medina of the mid-eighteenth century, constructed according to the principles of European military architecture, in a Moroccan context and in perfect harmony with the precepts of Moroccan architecture and town-planning. Essaouira has played a major role over the centuries as a caravan trade market, linking Morocco with sub-Saharan Africa and as an international trading seaport linking Morocco with the rest of the world. The town is a multicultural and multi confessional centre, with the coexistence of Muslim, Jewish and Christian people. Explore its traditional colourful streets, food markets and artisan workshops. We will stop at the Museum of Essaouira, bearing the name of the founder of the city, King Sidi Mahemed Ben Abdellah. Here, find an interesting display of artefacts such as archaeological finds from the islands of Mogador or the Berber ethnic jewellery from neighbouring tribes. Climb up the Portuguese fortress, which were in the 16th century one of the explorers ports of call. We stop to visit the fishing harbour and enjoy lunch at one of the seafood stalls.

BL

Day 5

WED 6TH SEPTEMBER: ESSAOUIRA

Day at leisure to absorb this wonderful fishing port. Who knows? Maybe a picnic lunch in a little-known oasis or why not be surprised by tasting Moroccan wine?

BD

Day 6

THU 7TH SEPTEMBER: ESSAOUIRA-MARRAKECH

We start our drive from Essaouira to Marrakech, with stop at Sidi Mokhtar for a weaving demonstration. On arrival, we will enjoy a captivating horse & carriage ride to Jardin Majorelle Gardens before returning to the hotel via Djemaa el Fna Square. Afternoon at leisure to explore or relax.

BD

Day 7

FRI 8TH SEPTEMBER: MARRAKECH

This is an exciting and most interesting exploration of the deep and authentic side of the old city of Marrakech, where we will see the traditional activities of the inhabitants of the old city and understand their way of life as well as some remains of the glorious past of this medieval capital of Morocco. Start through one of the historical gates of the old Medina and walk to discover the traditional way of life of its inhabitants and their daily occupations. Along the way, we will hear children from the Koran schools reciting verses, see old fountains, historical gates, visit an old bakery and taste the local bread. We will visit the 16th century Ben Youssef theological school along with the Moorish Museum to admire besides the marvellous Moorish architecture, an interesting collection of antiques going from the art of embroidery to ethnic jewellery and the fine blue and polychrome pottery. Next, see the archaeological site of the Almoravid dynasty and discover some of the hidden quarters and the historical caravanserai called Fondouks used once as hotels for the caravan traders. In the afternoon, we will walk through the maze of narrow colourful streets, taking you back in time through this active and bustling part of town. We will venture to the heart of the traditional markets to see the different alleyways, districts and the bright colours of the shops displaying all sorts of garments, shawls and fabrics made of wool, cotton or vegetable silks; feel the texture of all these fabrics and learn about their quality. Talk to the crafts people and ask them questions in order to learn more about their traditions and skills. End the tour with the Jmaa El Square including an “Authentic Moroccan Storyteller” experience. This is an experience few in life will witness. UNESCO-listed and declared the first “Masterpiece of the Oral & Intangible Heritage of Humanity”. Less than ten storytellers now exist. Tonight we enjoy dinner at a local Marrakech restaurant.

BL

Day 8

SAT 9TH SEPTEMBER: MARRAKECH

After breakfast, we meet our mountain guide and driver, then head north towards the foothills of Atlas Mountains. Stop in the village of Imlil where we start a gentle walk through the remote village of Mzik and then to Armed village. Savour a cup of mint tea in a local Berber house, before we walk down to meet our driver and transfer to Sir Richard Branson’s Kasbah Tamadot. After lunch leave Imlil for Marrakech.

BL

Day 9

SUN 10TH SEPTEMBER: MARRAKECH

Today we enjoy our cooking class—considered one of the best cooking classes in the world—starting with a comprehensive introduction of the importance of cooking in Moroccan society, and reviews the variety of recipes created by Dadas (traditional female cooks) over the centuries for special occasions such as marriages, holy days, and family festivals. We then proceed to an overview of the most traditional recipes such as pastilla,

HASSAN II MOSQUE

couscous, and the broad variety of tajines (stews usually made with lamb or chicken), while reviewing some of the basic pillars of Moroccan cuisine; a ‘spices and herbs’, technique of cooking. Then visit a nearby spice market and communal bread oven, where neighbourhood families bake their bread. The remainder of the day is at leisure.

BL

Day 10

MON 11TH SEPTEMBER: MARRAKECH

This afternoon we embark upon a cultural exploration led by a Dada. A Dada is a lady who specializes in private Moroccan traditional cooking and practices at wedding ceremonies and other important family events. Walk inside the old Medina and stop at one of the traditional bakeries; see the furnace that heats the local public steam bath and where locals occasionally bring to the keeper a sealed pot of stewed lamb or beef called “Tangia”, to be slow cooked in the ashes for many hours. Dada will give detailed explanations on how this recipe is prepared. We explore local food markets and stop at the spice square to learn about the herbs and spices used in the Moroccan cooking. A short break on this square has been planned in order to taste some traditional Marrakech “herbal tea” on one of the roof terraces overlooking the square. Our guide will continue the tour showing us different food markets selling preserved meat, dry fruits and nuts, olives, preserved lemons, and mint before we stop by the shops preparing and selling steamed and roast lamb. As we arrive on the main square of Jemaa El Fna, we will find a large space dedicated to local people and visitors seeking delicious and rare traditional recipes. Stroll around the stalls offering different sorts of local specialities from freshly squeezed Moroccan orange juice to the special hot spiced tea, and from different Moroccan soup and stew stalls to the snail bars. After exploring this square, classified by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site we arrive in DAR MOHA, the former home of the French designer Pierre Balmain and which is now run as a Moroccan restaurant. Here we will taste an amazing culinary festival, introducing you to Moroccan Nouvelle Cuisine.

BD

Day 11

TUE 12TH SEPTEMBER: MARRAKECH-AIT BEN HADDOU- SKOURA

After an early breakfast, we will check out of the Marrakech Hotel and drive over the high Atlas mountain range along one of the most spectacular roads in Morocco via the pass of Tizi-N-Tichka Pass, to the UNESCO classified Kasbah of Ait Ben Haddou, one of the fortified villages of the Glaoui tribes who once controlled this important passage for caravans. We will explore the kasbah. We continue through Ouarzazate to visit its Kasbah, once inhabited by the last Lords of the Atlas. Ouarzazate has become the film making capital of Morocco, where such films as Gladiator, Babel and Prince of Persia have been filmed.

BL

Day 12

WED 13TH SEPTEMBER: SKOURA-TODRA GORGE-ERFOUD

After breakfast, we leave for Erfoud, via Skoura Oasis and El Kelaa M'goun. We continue on through Valley of the Roses, then along the route of a Thousand Kasbahs, a region of fortresses with elaborately decorated facades, before stop in Tinghir for lunch. After lunch we visit the Todra Gorges Pass, before continuing our drive to Erfoud.

BLD

Day 13

THU 14TH SEPTEMBER: ERFOUD

This morning we start our day with an early morning 4WD excursion into the Sahara Desert to enjoy the sunrise at the breathtakingly beautiful sand dunes at Merzouga on the edge of the Sahara erg. In the enormous silence we watch the sunrise over the desert as we take a camel ride along the Morocco's only Saharan dunes before enjoying some breakfast in Bedouin Camp. On the way back to the hotel, we visit the holy city of Rissani, with its 18th-century KSAR, a virtually impenetrable warren of alleys.

BLD

Day 14

FRI 15TH SEPTEMBER: ERFOUD-MIDELT-FEZ

After breakfast, we depart on our drive to Fez. We travel north through the lush oases of the Ziz valley, through the French Foreign Legion outpost of Er-rachidia and on to Midelt, renowned for its minerals and fossils where we will stop for lunch. We continue through the Middle Atlas mountain range stopping at the alpine resort of Ifrane for refreshments before the final leg of the journey.

BD

Day 15

SAT 16TH SEPTEMBER: FEZ

We start our day today with a walking tour in the Old town. Step back into the middle Ages to visit the largest living medieval medina-city of Fez, El Bali, the cultural heart of Morocco. Founded in the 8th century AD by Moulay Idriss I, the Imperial capital was a renowned centre of medieval learning. At its heart lies the Karaouine, one of the oldest still functioning university. Next-door is the Attarine Medersa (Koranic college), a jewel of Hispano-Moorish architecture, built in the 14th century. We visit the Nejjarine Square and its beautiful fountain with elaborate tile-work mosaics and the nearby Fondouq (Caravanserail), now converted to a museum of carpentry artifacts. After lunch we visit Dar Batha, the Museum of Moroccan Arts, housing historical and artistic collections of wood carvings, embroidery, tribal carpets and ceramics. Continue by minibus to Fez El Jedid, built by the Merinid Dynasty in the 13th century, along with a Royal Palace, mosques, medersas, souks and city wall. Most notably, it is home to the Mellah, the old Jewish quarter, provides an interesting insight into Jewish architecture. Wrought iron decorated windows and splendid carved wood balconies of the old mansions are outstanding. The medieval Medina is a UNESCO world heritage site.

BL

Day 16

SUN 17TH SEPTEMBER: FEZ

Don your apron and your sense of humour! Today we are going to cook lunch for a Fez family in their own private kitchen. (This is a very different experience to that in Marrakech). We will get a crash course in Arabic phrases as our guide leads us through the Medina to meet our hosts and prepare for the first challenge of the day: making bread and taking it up the street to bake in a public oven. Get your haggling head on as we head to the food stalls for fresh ingredients, much more fun than supermarket shopping! Then it's back to the kitchen for an Arabic cookery class when you'll learn to prepare Tagine, preserve lemon, and make a mean Moroccan marinade and other staples of a hearty Fez feast. Hasananaprovejo – enjoy – as the locals say. After a mint tea-making lesson, try out your newly-learned Arabic on your host family and ask them what they really thought of your cooking.

Kasbah of Ait Ben Haddou

BL

Day 17

MON 18TH SEPTEMBER: FEZ-MEKNES-CHEFCHAOUEN

Considered as one of the Imperial cities of Morocco, Meknes offers the visit of various monuments: El Heri Souani: the granary and the stables built by the soldiers of Moulay Ismail next to a huge pool supplied by underground channels that bring the water from the mountains, the mosque and mausoleum of Moulay Ismail. Bab El Mansour gate, built in 1680, is considered as the most beautiful in North Africa. At the end of our visit take a walk in El Hdim square and visit the Haras of Meknes. Drive towards the mountain of Zerhoun to visit Moulay Idriss, the holiest town in Morocco where Idriss I is buried. This town is a pilgrimage destination where thousands of faithful Muslim Moroccans go once a year to pray on the tomb of this descendant of the prophet. Continue to Volubilis which is the most interesting place through which we will discover the Roman part of the Moroccan history. Built 2000 years ago, Volubilis was the capital of Morocco at the time when it was a Roman province. Here we will see how rich this part of the world was at that time from the different monuments of the city and the lovely mosaics that were discovered in the early 1900's. We continue our drive toward Chefchaouen where we stay overnight.

BD

Day 18

TUE 19TH SEPTEMBER: CHEFCHAOUEN

Today we enjoy a tour of Chefchaouen, a 15th century fortress town, often known as "The Blue Pearl", because of the colour of the houses and buildings. In 2016, Chefchaouen was named in the top ten of Condé Nast Traveler's Most Beautiful Cities in the World. Our afternoon is at leisure to explore more of this fortress town.

BL

Day 19

WED 20TH SEPTEMBER: CHEFCHAOUEN-CASABLANCA

We depart from Chefchaouen this morning to Casablanca, where we will visit Rick's Cafe, famous for its association with the film Casablanca, before checking in to our hotel.

Andrew Jones Travel Pty. Ltd. and the carriers, accommodations, and other suppliers providing tour services shall all be known as the 'Operators' and reserve the right to cancel or re-schedule any vacation departure. If cancellation is made prior to departure of the tour, the only responsibility of the Operators will be to refund to the passenger the amount we have received for the reservation. We will try to re-book the same vacation with a different departure date, or a similar tour. Where the Operators have confirmed flights, we will try to confirm air seats for the selected new dates, subject to availability.
